Adapted from Whiteness Is Dead – an article written by Heathen Chinese

Performance notes: song performed with rattle and shake instruments; while being sung, the song is interpreted in sign language

Lyrics

Listen to this message
the black sun is rising revealing shadows, purifying a declaration of allegiance solidified by oaths everything they got blows up in smoke

People get ready
rattlesnake of embodiment salubrious all I do is witness aiding the elements got me curious

Spread this message
new possibilities, loyalties I receive new structures emerging an obligation to accountability steady on my path as they cease their wrath

Make way
assemble the people
